

In addition to the standard files posted to the webpage for the solicitation, drawings have also been provided in .dwg format to assist offerors in preparing drawings as part of their proposal for this design/build project. It is the offeror's responsibility to obtain the necessary software needed for this type file.